The Committee may vote to excuse an absent member from a Committee meeting. Officers serve at the pleasure of the Committee and may be removed from office before expiration of their term by a vote of two members of the Committee.

Section 3. Nomination and Election of Officers

A. The Committee shall elect its own officers. During an election, any Committee member may nominate themselves or another Committee member for the office of Chair or Vice Chair. A Committee member nominated for an office may decline the nomination. Unless the Committee member declines, all Committee members nominated at that meeting shall be considered candidates for office.

B. The Committee shall vote on the office of Chair, with each member voting for one of the candidates. If one candidate receives 2 (equivalent to a majority of total seats) votes, that candidate shall be elected as Chair. If no candidate receives 2 (equivalent to a majority of total seats) votes, the Committee may have additional discussion and votes, the Committee may reopen nominations, and candidates may withdraw their candidacy. After the Committee selects a Chair, the Committee shall vote on the office of Vice Chair following the same procedure.

C. If the office of the Chair is vacated, the Vice Chair shall serve as Chair until the next regular meeting. The Committee shall elect a Chair at that meeting to fill the vacancy. If the Vice Chair is elected as Chair, the Committee shall elect a new Vice Chair at that meeting. Unless the Committee assigns a different member, the Chair (or the Chair's designee) shall submit a report to the Commission during the Commission's monthly meetings.

Section 5. General Duties and Responsibilities of the Vice Chair

The Vice Chair shall perform the duties and responsibilities that may be delegated by the Chair. In the absence of the Chair, the Vice Chair shall perform the duties of the Chair as described above.

The Department will provide clerical and administrative support for the Committee, including posting agendas and minutes online, circulating agenda materials to Committee members, and assisting with the administration of meetings. The Department will select and supervise the staff that supports the Committee.

At all meetings of the Committee, the presence of 2 (equivalent to a majority of total seats) members shall constitute a quorum. Regardless of the number of members present, the affirmative vote of at least 2 (equivalent to a majority of total seats) members shall be required for the approval of any matter unless otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

Section 2. Public Participation

Consistent with its mission and as required by law, the Committee shall hold meetings open to the public and encourage the participation of interested persons. Each meeting agenda shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the Committee on items of interest to the public that are within the Committee's jurisdiction but not on the Committee's agenda.

The Department shall provide a copy of Section 67B.1 to each member of the Committee. Any member who intends to take parental leave under this policy must inform the Department and the Chair of the Commission in writing. To the extent feasible, the member's written notice shall state the beginning and end dates of the leave and whether the member intends to participate in Commission or Committee meetings remotely during the leave. But the notice is not binding on the member and does not limit the member's rights under the parental leave policy, but rather is intended to aid Department and the Chair of Commission in planning the work and the meetings of the Commission or Committee while the member is on parental leave.

Article VII – Voting and Abstention

The Committee will act by motion. Any Committee member may make a motion orally during a meeting, and any other member may second that motion. All motions must receive a second before the Committee votes.

Each member present at a Committee meeting shall vote “yes” or “no” on all motions, unless the either (1) the member is excused from voting by a motion adopted by a majority of the members present, or (2) the member has a legal conflict of interest that prohibits the member’s participation in the vote. To determine whether a member has a legal conflict of interest in a particular matter, the member should consult with the City Attorney’s Office.
